

Insulet Appoints Jim Hollingshead to Board of Directors

July 31, 2019

ACTON, Mass.--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Jul. 31, 2019-- Insulet Corporation (NASDAQ: PODD) (Insulet or the Company), the global leader in tubeless insulin pump technology with its Omnipod® Insulin Management System (Omnipod System), today announced that Jim Hollingshead, Ph.D., has been appointed to the Company's Board of Directors, effective immediately.

Dr. Hollingshead is President of the Sleep business at ResMed (NYSE: RMD), a pioneer in cloud connected medical devices focused on the treatment of sleep related breathing disorders. He brings to the Insulet Board a unique combination of digital strategy and transformation expertise, as well as global corporate leadership and consulting experience in the biotech and life sciences sector. As the President of ResMed's Sleep business, Dr. Hollingshead led ResMed's transformation from a traditional medical hardware technology business to a SaaS-based digital solutions and services business, making ResMed a world-leading tech-driven medical device and software company. Under his leadership, ResMed's Sleep business has dramatically expanded the scope and adoption of digital solutions in the treatment of sleep apnea around the globe and is pioneering the use of real world data and advanced analytics for the improvement of patient care.

"We are excited to welcome a leader with Jim's expertise to the Insulet Board," said Timothy Scannell, Chairman of Insulet's Board of Directors. "Jim brings a track record of meaningful digital innovation and transformation in the medical device space, with deep experience in digitally-centric product development to not only better serve users, but expand growth opportunities. This experience is particularly relevant and complementary to Insulet, as we harness the power of technology and data to improve the lives of those living with diabetes."

About Jim Hollingshead, Ph.D.:

Jim Hollingshead, Ph.D., is President of the Sleep business for ResMed, a global medical technology company with over nine million cloud-connectable devices for daily remote patient monitoring.
